Know all men by these presents that I, Elbert Osborn of the city and county of New York in the state of New York, considering the uncertainty of human life, and being of sound mind and memory, do make, declare, and publish this my last will and testament.

First I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Sarah Osborn the use of all my property and estate, real and personal during her life.

Second, It is my will, that at my wifes death, all my property shall be equally divided among my three children, Mary P. Banks, William B.
Osborn, and Sarah A. Osborn.

Third I hereby nominate and appoint my beloved wife, Sarah Osborn to be the executrix of this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal and publish and declare this to be my last will and testament in presence of the witnesses named Codicil to my will which was executed on the twenty eighth day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventy one

Know all men by these presents, that I Elbert Osborn, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby bequeath to my daughter Sarah Augusta Osborn, the building erected by me about two years and a half since on ~~her~~ lot at Ocean Grove, Monmouth county New Jersey. She is to be the sole owner and occupant of that cottage after the death of my wife, whom I have already made heir to the use of all my property during her life. In view of the opportunity which my daughter Sarah has had to assist us by her personal labor and otherwise, I have made this small bequest, she having been with us much longer than our other children. I am grateful to all my children for their kindness to me. May God reward each one of them. I hereby nominate and appoint my beloved wife Sarah Osborn to be the executrix of this Codicil as she is appointed the executrix of the Will to which this is a Codicil.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal and publish and declare this to be the only Codicil I have made to my last Will and Testament; in presence of the witnesses named below, this second day of November in the year our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy four.
