

Description: Selected estate papers of Amos Osborn(d. 1850)
Mahoning Co., OH Probate Case File #262

Repository: Mahoning Valley Historical Society Archives Library 648 Wick Ave., Youngstown, OH 44502

Format: Original case file

These images were scanned from photocopies of the original papers by Lee K. Osborne and posted at the Osborne Origins website at:

The original case file contains few papers and not all of them were copied. There was no petition or final settlement allowing Amos' heirs to be determined. The probate case file for Amos' brother William Osborn does show Amos' heirs. See

THE STATE OF OHIO, }
MAHONING COUNTY, SS.

The Honorable Benjamin F. Trade President Judge of the Third Judicial Circuit of the Court of Common Pleas of the State of Ohio, and

James Enalloe. James Browner and Amos Brigham

Esquires, his Associates, Judges of the same Court, within and for the County of Mahoning, holding said Court at the court house, in said county, the 29th day of October 1855

To Adon Lynn _____ GREETING.

WHEREAS, Amos Osborne OF Boardman

in said county, (as is alleged) lately died intestate, having whilst living, and at the time of his death, goods, chattles, rights, credits and estate within said county of Mahoning, by reason whereof the granting of administration of all and singular the said goods, chattles, rights, credits and estate, and also the auditing, allowing and final discharging the account thereof doth appertain to us; we being desirous that said goods, chattles, rights, credits and estate, may be well and faithfully administered, applied and disposed of according to law, do therefore, by these Presents, appoint and constitute you, the said Adon Lynn of all and singular the goods, chattles, rights and credits of the said deceased. You having accepted said trust and executed your bond to our acceptance, well and faithfully, in the manner prescribed by law, to make and return into said Court, on oath, within three months from the date of these letters of Administration, a true inventory of all the moneys, goods, chattles, rights and credits of said deceased, which have or shall come to your possession or knowledge, and, if required by said Court, an inventory of the real estate of the deceased---also to administer, according to law, all the moneys, goods, chattles, rights and credits of the deceased and the proceeds of all his real estate, that may be sold for the payment of his debts which shall, at any time come to your possession as such Administrator or to the possession of any other person for you: also to render, upon oath, a true account of your administration, within eighteen months from the date of these letters of administration, and at any other times, when required by the said Court, or the law. Also: to pay any balance remaining in your hands: upon the settlement of your accounts: to such persons as the Court or the law shall direct; and also to deliver these letters of administration into said Court: in case any will of the deceased shall be hereafter duly proved and allowed.

In testimony whereof, we have caused the Seal of our said Court to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, WILLIAM W. WHITTLESEY,

Clerk thereof, at Canfield, in said County, this 17th day of December

A. D. one thousand eight hundred and fifty

William W. Whittlesey

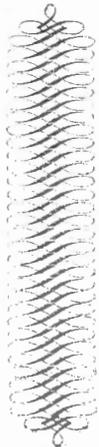

Clerk.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS,

That we, Adam Lynn as principal and John Cowden + William Osborn as surties, of the County of Mahoning, are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of Two hundred ($ 200 00) dollars, lawful money of the United States, to which payment well and truly to be made unto the said State of Ohio, we do bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, and every of them jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated the second day of December Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty Fifty

THE CONDITION OF THE ABOVE OBLIGATION IS SUCH, That if the above named Adam Lynn Administrator of all and singular the goods chattels and credits of Amos Osborn late of the County and State aforesaid, deceased, shall faithfully make and return into Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the deceased, which have or shall come to his possession, or knowledge; and also if required by the Court, an inventory of the real estate of the deceased; and administer, according to law all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits, of the deceased, and the proceeds of all his real estate, that may be sold for the payment of his debts, which shall, at any time, come to the possession of the Administrator or to the possession of any other person for him; and render, upon oath, a true account of his administration, within eighteen months, and at any other times, when required by the Court or the law; and pay any balance remaining in his hands, upon the settlement of his accounts, to such persons as the Court or law shall direct and deliver the letters of administration into Court, in case any Will of the deceased shall be thereafter duly proved and allowed, then this Obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law.
